CAMRAS.
CAMRAS.
CAMPAIGN OF FOR REAL AIR PARA 1971-20

Hi, Fellow Beer and Cider Lovers.

The Hospitality Sector, and the rest of society, has now reopened with all the legal restrictions of the previous 18 months removed in law, but now remain with us to use our judgement, wherever we are, and for whatever we are doing.

The Chancellor has listened to thousands of CAMRA members from across the whole of the country who have long called for a change in the way alcohol is taxed. A new, lower rate of duty for draught beer and cider served in pubs and clubs establishes an important principle in the taxation system – that pubs are a force for good in our communities, and should be supported to help them survive and compete with the likes of supermarkets. But this new system will not be implemented until 2023.

In the meantime, measures like duty freezes and a 50% cut in business rates in England for another year are to be welcomed. Our pubs and breweries are still recovering from the pandemic, face rising bills and costs and will continue to need as much support as they can get so they can rebuild their businesses and thrive in the years to come.

Cutting tax for lower ABV drinks will incentivise lower strength alcoholic drinks, whilst new financial support for smaller producers – including cider producers – and continuing discussions around a 50% minimum juice content are encouraging news for both cider makers and consumers. These measures should help to improve quality and choice at the bar. CAMRA will continue to engage with the Government on the planned reforms to Small Brewers Relief and call for a solution that doesn't require some of the smallest breweries to have to pay more tax.

The introduction of a Draught Duty Rate is a gamechanger for cask beer drinkers, cider and perry drinkers and the Great British local. This is something CAMRA has campaigned on for many years and we are delighted that the Government has listened, supported our locals and introduced the important principle that beer, cider and perry served in a pub or social club should be taxed at a different rate to alcohol bought at places like supermarkets.

CAMRA has previously commissioned research that showed that a Draught Beer Duty rate could pull consumption into pubs and social clubs from the off trade, providing a boost to pubs and local economies.

We hope that pubs and producers will make sure drinkers see the impact of this revolutionary policy on the price of their pints, to encourage them to return to their locals – please try and use your local pub and club, otherwise there is a distinct possibility that we will lose them!

Cheers, Bob Holmes and the Plymouth CAMRA Committee

CAMRA's Budget Response

Budget's historic change to the way beer is taxed recognises that pubs are a force for good in our society

Changing the tax system to better support pubs can help the Great British local thrive – but more pubs, breweries and drinkers should be able to benefit, say CAMRA

Responding in full to the Autumn Budget announcements, CAMRA National Chairman Nik Antona said:

"The Chancellor has listened to thousands of CAMRA members who have long called for a change in the way alcohol is taxed. A new, lower rate of duty for draught beer and cider served in pubs and clubs establishes an important principle in the taxation system – that pubs are a force for good in our communities and should be supported to help them survive and compete with the likes of supermarkets.

"Our task before this new duty rate is implemented in 2023 is to make sure that the new, lower draught duty rate applies to beer and cider served in smaller containers too, so that as many pubs, breweries and consumers as possible can benefit. We will be using the Government's consultation on how this new system should operate in practice to make this case.

"In the meantime, measures like duty freezes and a 50% cut in business rates in England for another year will be welcomed. Our pubs and breweries are still recovering from the pandemic, face rising bills and costs and will continue to need as much support as they can get so they can rebuild their businesses and thrive in the years to come.

"Cutting tax for lower ABV drinks will incentivise lower strength alcoholic drinks, whilst new financial support for smaller producers – including cider producers – and continuing discussions around a 50% minimum juice content are encouraging news for both cider makers and consumers. These measures should help to improve quality and choice at the bar. CAMRA will continue to engage with the Government on the planned reforms to Small Brewers Relief and call for a solution that doesn't require some of the smallest breweries to have to pay more tax."

New Draught Duty Rate

CAMRA says 'Cheers' to the Chancellor for new Draught Duty rate

CAMRA welcomes ground-breaking new policy for cask beer and cider drinkers

Commenting on the Autumn Budget announcement of a new Draught Duty rate for beer and cider served in pubs, CAMRA Chairman Nik Antona said:

"The introduction of a Draught Duty Rate is a gamechanger for cask beer drinkers, cider and perry drinkers and the Great British local.

"This is something CAMRA has campaigned on for many years and we are delighted that the Government has listened, supported our locals and introduced the important principle that beer, cider and perry served in a pub or social club should be taxed at a different rate to alcohol bought at places like supermarkets.

"CAMRA has previously commissioned research that showed that a Draught Beer Duty rate could pull consumption into pubs and social clubs from the off trade, providing a boost to pubs and local economies.

"We hope that pubs and producers will make sure drinkers see the impact of this revolutionary policy on the price of their pints, to encourage them to return to their locals.

"We look forward to campaigning for future reductions in Draught Duty, to make sure that consumers, brewers and publicans can enjoy the maximum benefits of this ground-breaking new policy."

Where Are They Now No 12

No Place Inn, Stoke Road, Stonehouse

Built in an affluent area of Plymouth in the early 1830's, there have a number of different addresses over the years, including Noplace, North Place, Stoke Lane, Stoke Hill and Eldad Hill – so take your pick!

From a CAMRA perspective, I have little recollection of drinking in here, not because of imbibing too much, rather the opposite I think. The pub wasn't listed in either of the Devon Real Ale guides of the 1990's, and hasn't appeared in any CAMRA Good Beer Guides.

No matter, it was a pub from the early part of the 1830's right through until its' closure in 2010, a good 180-odd years or so. One family which saw an awful lot of that time was the Dodd family, who owned it from the 1840's until the 1920's through various sons and daughters.

However, this may have been different if a certain Mr Brunel had had his way in the 1840's and built a railway station in Noplace, instead of at Millbay.

We believe the building is now in residential use.

Pub & Brewery News

Pub News

The Complex, Keyham, appears from social media to have been acquired by Higgins Leisure Group and is to be renamed Lucifer's Warehouse. It would appear to be a music venue from FB. This makes four Plymouth pubs in their portfolio, the others being Bitter & Twisted, Tavistock; Lockdown Bar & Grill, Southway; & Woodside Bar & Kitchen (and music lounge), as all are included on their profile picture. The Sir Joshua Reynolds, Plympton, no longer serves real ale. The Brewery Tap, Stonehouse, is currently opening between Thursday and Sunday. Sadly, the Plume of Feathers, Princetown, has closed down due to the efforts of the covid pandemic, and the trading conditions placed upon the hospitality industry. Minerva Inn, Looe Street, Barbican, requires proof of vaccine status for inside service; The Swan, City Centre, refused to serve two senior citizens because they were wearing clothing with armed forces affiliation motifs. The Ship Inn, Morwellham Quay, is now open to the public without having to pay entry for the tourist attraction, with separate parking available for the pub at no charge. Michael Jonas, manager of the Tamar, Crownhill, has requested some CAMRA promotional material. The following pubs are believed to be under new management - Crooked Spire, Ermington; Forest Inn, Hexworthy; Leaping Salmon, Horrabridge; Mary Tavy Inn, Mary Tavy; Modbury Inn, Modbury; Tavistock Inn (may be a Relief Manager?) and Trout N Tipple, both in Tavistock; Odd Wheel, Wembury; and Who'd Have Thought It, Milton Coombe. Sadly, Bitter & Twisted, Tavistock, is currently closed, as is the Miner's Arms, Hemerdon. The Dartmoor Union, Holbeton, is under a planning application for change of use to housing. The branch have received about 100 pub photos taken in the early 1980's – Thank You very much Lee from Essex! Boomerangs Sports Bar, Mutley Plain, is now trading as a restaurant, Turkish Sharwarme.

Thatchers and Weston's cider is no longer considered real cider by the APPLE Committee of CAMRA.

Plymouth CAMRA would like to wish all new publicans all the very best in their new ventures during the current very difficult trading conditions.

Brewery News

Anchor House and Billy Ruffian's – no news; Bere Brewery continue to brew every week and, with restrictions lifted, they are having their Tap Room open at least once a month. They are also selling their bottled conditioned beers at Tavistock Market on various dates (Go to their website for details on dates). Bulletproof have teamed up with TQ Beerworks to carry out some new collaborative brewing; Dartmoor continue to brew their full range of beers; Devil's Pleasure, Sigford, South Devon, is a new brewery founded on the edge of Dartmoor National Park, on a farm near Newton Abbot, in 2020 and specialising in brewing punchy bold craft beers which are unfiltered and naturally hazy. Their beers mirror the owner's passion: They are direct, full of character, have bold tropical notes, and are unfiltered and hazy. They aim to not be static, so look out for new creations and one-off brews. The website lists five beers as the most recent additions which are Breakfast Juice IPA, ABV 3.8%; Hellishly Hoppy IPA, ABV 4.0%; Crafty Lager, ABV 4.5%; NEIPA, ABV 4.5%; & West Coast IPA, ABV 4.6%; Gilt & Flint, Musbury, East Devon, are also a new brewery and they generally produce ORGANIC beer which is bottled, or canned. The range includes a lager, a pale ale, a NEIPA and a stout; Ivybridge – no news; Morwell have only started brewing recently, when the Ship Inn, Morwellham Quay, reopened in July 2021. They provide cask conditioned ale for the pub and also have bottles of their 3 ales to buy from the bar for taking away. Free parking is available to visit the Ship Inn only at present; Noss Beer Works – no news; Platform 5, Newton Abbot, have relocated to somewhere near Torquay from the Railway Brewhouse, which has changed ownership recently; Roam – no news; demand for Stannary beers has risen, with more brewing, canning, running the online shop and the popular tap room. The tap room has been complemented by the addition the "Beer Shed", a large covered outdoor area. The core range remains the same (Stannary Pale 4%, PL19 - craft larger 4.2%, All That Jazz - session IPA 4.2%, Reverse Camber west coast IPA 5%). They have just celebrated their 6th Birthday with Lupo Juice (8.7% double IPA) brewed every August for the event. The tap room is now open Fridays 3-10pm and Saturdays Midday - 8pm. Steel Brew Co continued to brew and bottle during Lockdown and also started doing deliveries. They are now brewing their keg beers again to keep their Tap Room replenished. Currently, the taproom opens Wednesday to Sunday (check their website for times). They continue to brew one-off beers to go alongside their four core beers, which are Mantra, Plymouth, Chairman Meow and Breakwater. Plymouth Pale Ale has been Awarded Champion Beer 2021 in the Taste Of The West competition – congratulations! Steel will also be relocating within RWY shortly, from Melville Building and into Mills Bakery;

Summerskills are brewing once or twice a week at the moment. Following the Lockdowns and woefully inadequate and inconsistent financial support from government for breweries without taprooms, Summerskills are reassessing their channels to market and options going forward. Summerskills are now licenced for retail sales to the public from the brewery. Their bottle conditioned beers are also available to order online with delivery from Westcountry Produce (www.westcountryproduce.co.uk). The Foxhound Inn at Brixton are also continuing to take orders and payment for their beer for local home delivery or collection from the pub. Owner Norm is planning to bring their branding all in line with the bottle labels and refresh the website. Summerskills is still offering 5 and 10 litre bag-in-box beers to order, as well as a wide range of their bottle conditioned ales available for sale from the brewery along with some craft beers, ciders, wines and spirits not generally found in the supermarkets;

Turk's Head, High Street, Exeter, is a new brew pub and part of the City Pub Group. The pub has been closed since 2018, but reopened on Wednesday 1st September 2021 at 1600. It is believed the pub has had extensive refurbishment during the Lockdown period, including hotel accommodation. The brewery is a 5 BBL plant and will be offering both real ale and keg products, initially building up to a range of 10 products (5 of each). The brewer will be Simon, who is normally based at King Street in Bristol. The pub is quite old and has a lot of history - Charles Dickens used to frequent there back in the day. Along with offering a range of alcoholic beverages and pub food, there will also be 6 guest rooms above the pub and a secret roof terrace. One of their cask ales has a great name – Dickie's Best!

Little John's Torquay

It was a beautiful September day when our group of merry men met up at Plymouth train station. Little John was our leader for the day and this gave the good Captain a well-earned day off. It was suggested that we each buy a plus bus ticket with our train ticket. It was without doubt the best advice we have been given. It allows for virtually unlimited bus trips on any bus virtually anywhere near your destination, in our case The English Rivera resort of Torquay.

When our train pulled into Plymouth station from Cornwall, it was very clear it was extremely busy, so we all marched off down to the front of the train where the carriage was virtually empty. People seldom want to walk too far do they these days? After a change of train at Newton Abbot it was a quick trip to our next stop of Torre where we got off.

Our first port of call was the Bull and Bush but unfortunately, we were too early, and it hadn't opened. So, we popped into a nearby watering hole and a rather grumpy guy from Birmingham served us a rather bland beer of no particular interest in a rather drab looking pub.

After one drink it was a short walk to The Bull and Bush and it was a great improvement. I had a Marston's Pedigree followed by Hobgoblin from Wychwood brewery. Both were excellent indeed. Things were looking up.

Round the corner to the bus stop we went. While waiting for the bus I noticed a patisserie across the road with a constant stream of customers visiting and buying products. Waiting for a gap I rushed across the road to order some munchies, out of the corner of my eye I noticed our bus had appeared, so I quickly ran out the door to see our bus going off into the distance. None of the group thought to put their hand out to stop the bus as they were too busy talking. So the shop benefitted from a few more eager customers.

As our original bus had about an hour gap till the next one we got on the next bus going down to the harbour. After checking the timetable, we had time to sample the delight of the nearby Yates bar. It was a mainly sports and eating establishment offering very reasonable food and drinks, with a wide range of ciders.

Then we were off again. The Plus Bus ticket was really coming into its own. Our bus turned out to be an open top double decker offering great views on the way to Babbacombe. There were lots of families out enjoying the sunshine but our destination lay a little further on at St Marychurch.

Our first point of call was the Dolphin and we sat outside on the pedestrian walkway sampling a very drinkable Bays Devon Dumpling. The Good Captain, wishing to be different, sucked on a pint of Sandford Orchards Devon Scrumpy.

Little John's Torquay

Then we were off around the corner to the Molloys, part of the Platform 5 Brewing Company. The Platform 5 American Pale Ale was very well received by all. The Exeter v Leicester rugby match entertained us as well. MOLLOYS

Then it was time to take the bus back down to Torquay harbour where we went to the not to be missed Hole in the Wall pub. It is tucked behind some buildings down a small alley and for the average tourist would have been impossible to find, unless for example, they had looked at What Pub. A hidden gem.

The Timothy Taylor Landlord was excellent, and so was the best of the afternoon from Exeter Brewery, Ferryman, which I scored 4 out of 5. Brilliant indeed.

Our final pub visited in Torquay was the excellent Weatherspoon, the Green Ginger. The service was very swift and the beers were very good indeed. Tring Nosebag, as well as another excellent pint of Bays Devon Dumpling, were both enjoyed.

Our bus back to Newton Abbot usually runs very frequently (every 10 minutes or so) but due to bad traffic or driver shortages, we waited for about 45 minutes which seemed ages. This was a bit of a downer to say the least. Eventually we got back to Newton Abbot and had time to pop into the Railway pub. Platform brewing company doesn't operate there anymore and have moved to Torquay, as sated above.

Eventually we got back to Newton Abbot and had time to pop into the Railway pub. Platform brewing company doesn't operate there anymore and have moved to Torquay, as stated above.

So it is now just a normal pub serving run of the mill beers. The train timetable television screen is still operating, so at least something of the old pub remains.

Then it was off back to "Fun City" after a very nice day out, mixed with a couple of mishaps, which always makes for an interesting day. Full marks go to Little John for all his hard work.

Roll on our next adventure!

Pulling Together

Like pubs, breweries were not initially deemed as essential businesses at the beginning of the pandemic. However, this changed quite early on, and a large number of breweries joined the Pulling Together Campaign to publicise, free of charge, what customers were able to order.

The Pulling Together website, Pulling Together - CAMRA - Campaign for Real Ale (link) lists all known breweries and pubs which are providing beer sales (and other options) direct to the public during the Covid-19 pandemic, the first pandemic in 100 years.

There is no known UK brewery brewing at anywhere near their usual production levels for this time of year, as the majority of beer is sold direct to the Licensed Trade for consumption in Licensed Premises.

The Campaign has provided, for a number of years, a national pub website, which we have called What Pub, and is available UK Pub Guide, Campaign for Real Ale • whatpub.com (link). This lists over 55 000 pubs, clubs and hotels throughout the whole of the United Kingdom, with over 37 000 of these establishments serving real, cask-conditioned ale.

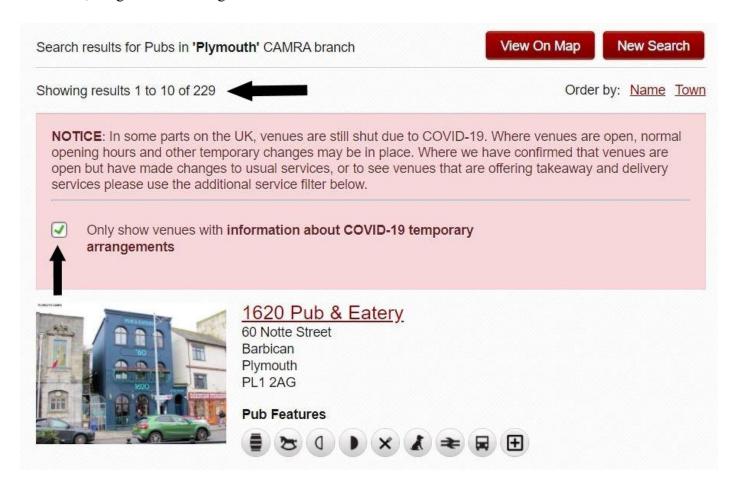

This website is maintained and managed by unpaid volunteers on a local level, in the case of Plymouth CAMRA by four local volunteers. We update the website whenever we are aware of changes to a pubs details, or made aware by people providing details of any errors or changes, such as telephone number has changed, for instance.

However, due to the pandemic, things have changed slightly. We no longer make changes to the pub opening hours, or food timings, due to the rapidly-changing situation due to the pandemic. Instead, we make amendments to an additional field, which we have called Covid-19 Temporary Arrangements. Before you click in the Search Box, tick the "Only show venues with information about COVID-19 temporary arrangements", just below the search box as shown by the arrow above, then type in your search criteria, such as Plymouth, or Tavistock, or Ivybridge, or whatever – see screenshot above.

You can search using a pub name, or postcode, or Plymouth (CAMRA), if you wish. You can also tick the "search for pubs and clubs that serve real ale" as well if you wish. Using the search criteria "Plymouth CAMRA", we get the following screenshot.

This lists the total number of establishments we are aware of that are open under the present trading conditions following Government guidelines (229 pubs, clubs and hotels). You can sort this, in order, by Pub Name, or by Town.

Famous Beer Advertising Slogans 5 21. "The amber nectar" 22. "The beer that made Milwaukee famous" 23. "The coldest tasting beer in the world" 24. "The Champagne of bottled beer" 25. "The cream of Manchester" Boddington's

What Pub Help

To help the unpaid volunteers to try and keep up with news about what pubs may be able to provide during the current difficlut Period, please use What Pub in the usual way and search for the pub. Then click on the "Feedback On The Pub" link at the top of the pub entry, as shown below by the arrow. Then just fill in the details about the services being provided, such as:-

"Food and drink deliveries are available on Tuesdays to Sundays, from 1200 until 1400, and 1700 until 2100. See Facebook/Pub Website for full details".

The Amazing Cider Man

An occasional series of ramblings from one of the branch's biggest fans of the apple juice. In this article, the Amazing Cider-Man talks about May – one of CAMRA's "Cider and Perry" months. Something to think about for NEXT year!

So thoughtful of them.

Yes, May is one of the best months of the year. Bluebells, the Eurovision Song Contest, the promise of summer, the FA Cup final (no Argyle in the final this year) and CIDER!!

Both cider and perry have reached a certain maturity from when the fruit was first crushed into juice last autumn. It's also the month when our wonderful orchards come into bloom.

Obviously the worldwide pandemic ("There's no need to say the word "worldwide" –Ed) has put a bit of a dampener on the occasion for the second year running but, fingers crossed, we can now confidently plan for events in May 2022.

Some ideas for Cider and Perry month May 2022

- Contact a Devon or Cornwall producer (there is a list on the Plymouth CAMRA website (Devon Cider Producers Plymouth CAMRA (link)) to see if they welcome visits
- Arrange a tasting with friends at a convenient venue
- Attend the Plymouth CAMRA cider crawl (but only when organised events are approved Ed) or organise your own
- Go online to discover ways of cooking with cider and apples
- Curl up with a good book such as CAMRA's Good Cider Guide
- Try varieties of apples and pears that you haven't eaten before
- Wash yourself in a bath full of pear juice it's lovely!

No excuses – you have just under a year to organise something!

In the meantime, the summer is on our doorstep and this is a great time to drink cider and perry. In the Plymouth area we have some fine places to drink the stuff (a couple of my favourites are the Cider House and the Walkhampton Inn) but if pubs aren't your thing, you can get a 20 litre bag in box starting from around £45 for home drinking.

Please support cider producers after what has been an awful 14 months or so.

I'm off for my bath.

See you in Cyderspace! The Amazing Cider-Man.

Real cider and perry grows on trees

Real cider is made from fresh apple juice, and real perry is made from fresh pear juice. Naturally fermented and free from concentrate or artificial processing.

Traditional British Beer Styles No 9

15. Baltic Porters, ABV 5.5% and above (to approx. 10.5%)

Originally brewed in England, this beer was exported to countries in the Baltic and Scandinavia, and then adopted by its recipients and crafted into what it is today. A hardy traveller.

This dark smooth beauty was brewed bigger and bolder in order to survive the journey from England to the Baltic countries. Since the original journey, however, it has become a distinct, stand-alone style. Dark mahogany to black in colour, it is smooth, full-bodied and almost coating — nearing stout in character. The malt-forward introduction can be a bevy of flavours: caramel, chocolate, roasty notes, liquorice, raisins, prunes and molasses. There is no flavour from the hops, but a balance and a bitterness is attained in their presence. It is sweet on the finish and, overall, a velvety treat. Unknown to many, Baltic porters are worth discovering.

Three examples of this style:

Green Jack Brewery Baltic Trader Export Stout ABV 10.5% – based in Lowestoft, a major port for the Baltic. This beer uses roasted barley and chocolate malt and has dark fruits, chocolate and peppery hop notes (bottle).

Teignworthy Brewery Russian Porter ABV 10.5% – an extra rich, dry, liquorice flavour, with a smooth marble finish (bottle).

Hopshackle Brewery Baltic Porter ABV 7.0% – intensely fruity, with blackberry and lemon flavours, with dark chocolate and peppery hop notes (cask).

16. Irish Dry Stouts, ABV 4.0% to 5.0%

This style was typified and refined in Ireland, and today few beers are so closely tied to a single nation. Roasted barley.

Simply the mention of dry stout conjures images of Irish pubs and Arthur Guinness. Evolving from the porters brewed in London, stouts were stronger and more full-bodied. Dry stout is typified by the use of roasted barley instead of black roasted malt. This gives the characteristic core of sharp, espresso-like roastiness. It is an opaque deep brown to motor-oil black in colour, with a thick and creamy head. There can be a hint of hop bitterness, but this is usually overcome by the bitterness of dark chocolate, cocoa, or coffee. From a keg or a can with a nitrogen widget, the creaminess makes the brew smooth and chewy. Deceivingly refreshing and highly sessionable, Irish dry stout is known to be the perfect choice for a long evening in the pub.

Three examples of this style:

Guinness Draught Stout ABV 4.2% – the world's most famous dry stout. The fluffy brown-ish head is the focal point. On first sip, there is an almost burnt bitter espresso flavour. (This is a keg beer)

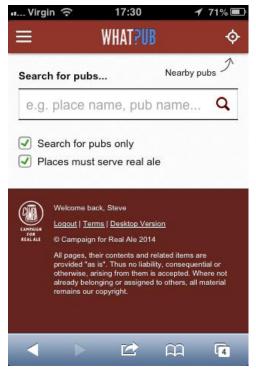

Skinner's Brewery Pennycomequick ABV 4.5% – creamy, dark brown, sweet stout with roast grain aroma. Heavy roast coffee, malt, fig and cherry flavours. Roast, dry finish. Cask conditioned beer.

Bridgetown Brewery Shark Island Stout ABV 4.5% – a smooth stout with strong malt and roast throughout. Touches of liquorice and chocolate lead to a bitter finish. Cask and bottle conditioned beer.

CAMRA Members have been able to play an active part in their local Branch for many years, without having to commit to devoting a lot of extra time to the cause. Beer scoring is an easy way to do this!

Beer scoring enables a number of things – firstly, it lets us (the Branch) know that A Pub is open and trading – which is very important in these very difficult trading times. Secondly, it also lets us know how the beer is being kept in A Pub. It also shows us what different real ales are being sold in branch area pubs which have been Beer Scored.

A full explanation, and screenshots, are available on the Plymouth CAMRA website, National Beer Scoring System - Plymouth CAMRA (link)

Beer scoring is very easy to do, even when you are enjoying a meal and a pint in the pub, if you have a smart phone or a tablet/iPad.

As can be seen on the left, for a smart phone, start the What Pub App. You will see a Button at the top right of the screen which states "Nearby Pubs". Simply tap the button and you should get a refreshed screen showing the pub that you are currently in.

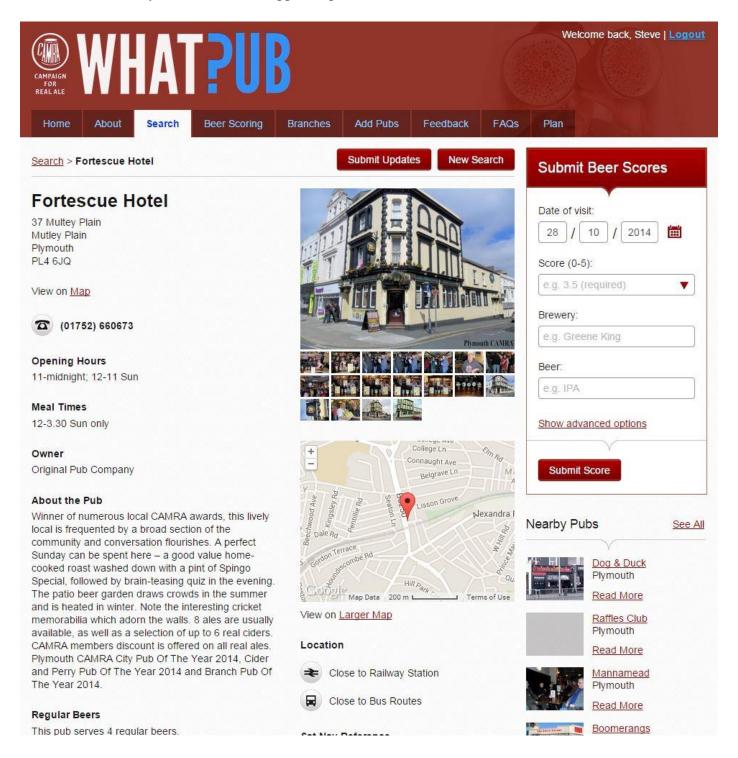

You will need to sign in with your current CAMRA membership number and your password in order to beer score, by tapping on the Login. Enter your number and password.

The screen will be similar to the one shown below on Page 24.

The screenshot shown below on Page 24 is for a laptop/tablets, but it is pretty similar for the smart phone. Once signed in, you can then go ahead and score the beer for the pub you are currently sat down in.

For the example below, for the Fortescue, Mutley Plain, you can tap the Calendar button and add the date. Then you can tap the upturned triangle and select your beer score – please remember that this is NOT whether you like the particular beer, but how it has been kept and served to you.

Next, click/tap in the Brewery box and start typing the name of the brewery and select from the auto fill list. A list of that brewery's beers will then appear – please select from that list.

If the beer you are currently drinking doesn't appear, please check the brewery name. If the brewery is correct, it could well be that the beer you are drinking is a new one, so please select "Advanced Options", where you can then add the name of the beer in the "comments" box.

Once you have finished adding your details, please click/tap "Submit Score" to finish the simple Beer Scoring Process.

Where Are They Now No 13

Wyndham Arms, 17 Stoke Hill, Stonehouse, PL1 5JG

Wyndham Square is located in one of the more impressive early 19th century Plymouth developments which still remain today. The Wyndham Arms clearly fits in with the other buildings.

It could have been a beer house from as early as the 1830's, following the introduction of the 1830 Beer Act, which gave any ratepayer permission to apply for a license to brew and sell beer on the premises. And all for the princely sum of just £2.00! Oh, how times have changed!

The pub is situated across the road from the old Royal Naval Hospital wall, despite RHN Stonehouse closing its' doors in the early 1990's when the Royal Navy moved their medical staff to Derriford.

It was alleged that there was, under one of the great stone slabs in the cellar, a tunnel which ran under the road and the wall and came out somewhere inside the hospital grounds. How true this is, I guess that I'll never know, as the pub closed around 2010 and is now used for housing.

Pear Tree Inn, 7 Devonport Road, Stoke PL3 4DJ

This was a large pub for many years and located, at various times, as being in Tavistock Road and latterly on Devonport Road without moving location. It survived the dark days of the Blitz of April 21st and April 22nd 1941, and had a full publican's license under Octagon Brewery.

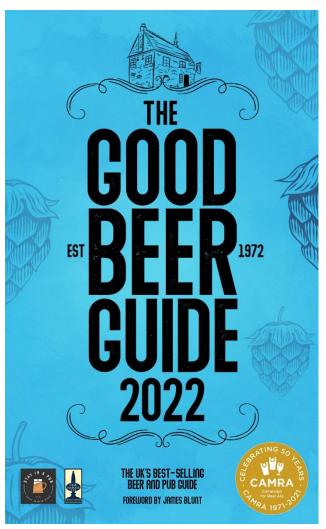

This area, at one time, had the largest number of pubs/licensed premises, in Plymouth, other than Union Street and the Barbican areas. From here, along Devonport Road to 178 at the Stopford Arms, there were at least another dozen, all within a short 5-10 minute walk.

The Pear Tree was described in the Devon Real Ale Guide of 1990 as a "One-roomed horseshoe-shaped bar on the main road. Music at weekends". It served just the one real ale, Courage Best Bitter. By 1993, Usher's Best Bitter appeared on the menu, and kept real ale drinkers happy with a choice of ales to drink. Managers came and went during the period up until 2012, when the pub was finally put up for sale. After submitting planning application for a change of use, the building is now being used for an animal grooming service.

-A Pint Of The Usual, Please!

Pubs reopened for inside service without food from 17th May, and then all legal restrictions were removed from 19th July 2021. We have seen lots of innovative ideas from publicans, along with some great expenditure by them to try and keep everyone safe at their pubs.

We have enjoyed a pretty good summer, with some excellent weather and have got used to sitting outside in the garden, or patio areas, many of them newly installed. However, we are now into the Autumn and are starting to look forward to Christmas – let us hope that we are able to enjoy Christmas with our families and loved ones.

We live in and around Plymouth and fortunately do not usually encounter droughts, so, when visiting our pubs, we should remember to wear a coat for inclement weather, and to also pack a brolly and a hat !!!!!!!

If you do go to the pub, please remember to be polite to all the staff and be courteous to them – it is not their fault that things have changed! Please also remember to comply with the latest Government guidelines in force, and to wash your hands often. But please, above all,

Stay Safe!
